Senator's Leadership Request

In ½ to one page double-spaced, write up your proposal for the Senate leadership position you want to be considered for. Your write-up should include: 1) What position would you like to be elected to? (1 sentence), 2) what does this job entail? (1 paragraph), 3) Why should you be considered a good candidate for the job? In particular, what attributes that we've chosen for you in class (party, ideology, state, seniority) and other factors that you want to make up make you a good choice? (1 paragraph), and 4) Why do you want the job? (1 paragraph).

Your leadership options:

Any Senator: chosen by the full Senate by majority vote, but typically senior from majority President Pro Tempore

For Democrats: chosen among party members in the Senate

Majority Leader

Majority Whip

Democratic Conference Committee Chair

Democratic Policy Committee Chair

For Republicans: chosen among party members in the Senate

Minority Leader

Minority Whip

Republican Conference Committee Chair

Republican Policy Committee Chair

For reference, beyond your text, you may look to the Senate website or other online references:
